The Litigation Section of the State Bar of California and the John M. Langston Bar Association are presenting an informal “brown bag” luncheon during which interested members of the Bar can meet informally with members of the California Judiciary in a small group setting. We are honored to have the Honorable Rose Hom and Josh M. Fredricks, Judges of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, participate in this program.

At the Bench-Bar Lunch, Judges Hom and Fredricks will explain the general procedures followed by them and provide their tips on briefing and arguing law and motion matters. There also will be a question and answer session to allow attendees to obtain additional thoughts and comments from the Judges.

The Bench-Bar Lunch will be held on January 24, 2007 from Noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Community Room of the Compton Courthouse (200 West Compton Boulevard, Compton, CA). Those who plan to attend should bring their own “brown bag” lunch. The program is open to all Litigation Section and Langston Bar Association members, but space is limited. Those interested in attending should register no later than January 22, 2007, by contacting Lawrence C. Hinkle at lhinkle@dskllp.com.

This event has been approved for .75 hours of MCLE credit by the John M. Langston Bar Association.
